A Message from Our Founder

Congratulations to the first graduate cohort of the African Link Initiative! I salute you for your hard work, dedication, and commitment to changing the narrative by learning your origin story - and sharing it with the world. While 2021 was wrought with uncertainty, I am inspired by your growth and feel blessed to witness where you will grow from here.

Thank you to our partners, African Ancestry, Anthony Browder and IKG, Boys & Girls Clubs of Mercer County, Crucial Learning, Global Connections Foundation of N.J., the TED organization, and United Way of Greater Mercer County. This program would not be possible without your collaboration and support.

A special thank you to our African Link Initiative parents, donors, and volunteers. I am honored to work with and be supported by such a dedicated group of people who give so much so freely.

To our board members, thank you for taking on a special level of commitment to transform the way our babies see their world, themselves, and their birthright. Your continued support helps keep my head in the game.

To those who personally mentor me and support my personal growth through this journey, thank you from my whole heart.

Last but definitely not least, to my family and my ancestors — thank you to those whose names I know, and to those whose names I will never know. Thank you for not knowing how to give up.

Thank you, God - for it all.

With Gratitude,

Shazel Muhammad

ALI TED-Ed Speaker

ALI's TED-Ed Student Talks Program was enlightening because it helped me to learn more about my strengths, weaknesses, and fears. This opportunity will also help me in my future because I have a better understanding of public speaking and sharing ideas that I am passionate about.

Simply put, the ALI program is by far one of the most innovative/engaging research-based programs I have had the chance to implement within our organization.

Testimonials

Oluwatoyin Tella
Parent of ALI Scholar

ALI is an experience for young adults that helps them formulate and contextualize who they are. ALI is a safe and nurturing space that reinforces the positive in their history, their community and lineage and gives them a foundation in self-worth. I think self-worth is a key word for this program.
